CAROLINAS
SECTION

ASSOCIATION DUES

$80.00 payable to the Carolinas PGA Section. Dues must accompany application and be payable by check, debit card, or credit card (Visa or MasterCard only). Senior Associate members will receive the following benefits: opportunity to compete in tournaments conducted in the CPGA Senior Open Tournament Series and other Senior Associate gifts.

ONLINE ENTRY

All applicants may register for the 2008 CPGA Senior Associate Program online. Visit <http://Carolinas.PGA.com>, click the "Tournament Info" link, and click again on "Seniors' Program." Contact Carolinas PGA Headquarters via email at carolinas@pgahq.com or at (843) 399-2742 with questions.

ELIGIBILITY

Amateur golfers who are residents of OR are members of a club in North or South Carolina AND must be 50 years of age or older.

DIVISIONS

Where numbers warrant, all amateurs will compete in the following age divisions: 50-54, 55-59, 60-64, 65 & up and 70 & up. Amateurs age 65 and over will have the choice of competing from the championship tees by selecting the 65 & Up age division or competing in the 65-69 or 70 & Up age divisions from the super senior tees. The CPGA reserves the right to adjust any and all age divisions to balance the field. Player of the Year Points will be awarded for contestants playing the Championship Tees and the Super Senior Tees based on their finish among all contestants playing the same set of tees.
