Our History

In the fall of 2006 PGA Tour Rules Official Mickey Bradley, and Corporate Communications Director for 84 Lumber, Jeff Nobers, approached Habitat for Humanity of the MS Gulf Coast with the idea of sponsoring a Pro-Am to benefit the gulf coast rebuilding efforts. Mickey recruited touring pro Jerry Kelly who had an affinity for the need here on the coast and together they recruited other players, businesses and corporations to support our first ever event which was hosted by Shell Landing Golf Club and the Gulf Coast Golf Foundation.

As a result of the sponsorship support of The Beau Rivage, Mary Mahoney's Opus Restaurant, and Shell Landing Golf Club the event was an overwhelming success. Thanks to the efforts of the 22 tour pros, the City of Biloxi (who donated the land), and 84 Lumber (who donated all the lumber for the houses), 3 Habitat homes were constructed in East Biloxi, MS.

This year we expect the event to be bigger and better than ever—sign on with us now!!
