A new women's professional golf tournament in Canada

Circuit Canada Pro Tour (www.ccptgolf.ca), founded in October 2015, is a new professional golf tour emerging in Canada. In partnership with Desjardins, the title sponsor, Circuit Canada Pro Tour is proud to offer women's golfers (professional and amateur) from any nationality, with no restriction on affiliation, access to the 2017 Desjardins Cup to be held at National Pines Golf Club in Innisfil, Ontario on May 24 and 25.

This international 36-holes event has a total purse at stake of $50,000 with $9,000 for the champion. Proud of a strategic alliance with Golf Canada and Symetra Tour, Circuit Canada Pro Tour is thrilled to present a women's professional golf event in Canada and to offer to the champion of the 2017 Desjardins Cup an exemption spot into LPGA's 2017 Canadian Pacific Women's Open.

Circuit Canada Pro Tour specialization is focused first and foremost to the golf discipline and particularly in the implementation and management of professional golf tournaments in Canada. Just a few months after the official launch of the company, international sports organizations such as PGA TOUR Canada, Golf Canada, Alps Tour Golf (Europe) and Great Lakes Tour sign strategic alliances with this new player on the Professional golf scene in Canada. The philosophy of the management team comes down to nothing less than growing and promoting professional golf nationwide.

Four separate divisions form the Circuit Canada Pro Tour entity:

- International Division - tournaments for professional golfers with no restrictions on affiliation;
- International Division - Ladies Section - tournament for women's golfers (professionals and amateurs) with no restriction on affiliation;
- National Division - tournaments reserved for professionals affiliated with the Great Lakes Tour and the PGA of Canada, as well as professional golfers residing in Quebec or affiliated with a golf club in Quebec;
- Provincial Division - tournaments reserved exclusively for professional golfers residing in Quebec or affiliated with a golf club in Quebec.

Circuit Canada Pro Tour has all the tools to guarantee events that meet very high standards (motorhomes, scoring and equipment trailers, advertising and promotional materials, VIP areas, etc.).
