The diagram illustrates a conceptual model with three main components: Community, Involvement, and Other. Community is positioned on the left, Involvement on the right, and Other at the bottom right. A horizontal line connects Community to Involvement. A vertical line descends from Involvement, and a diagonal line connects it to Other. A horizontal line also extends from Other to the left, meeting the vertical line from Involvement. The entire diagram is enclosed in a rectangular frame with a dashed border.
