

Future Collegians World Tour Player Code of Conduct

2019-2020 SEASON

PLAYER CODE OF CONDUCT

The Future Collegians World Tour (FCWT) is grateful for the involvement of players, parents, and host facilities. The FCWT has established rules and guidelines for both its participants and their families. We firmly believe that with privilege comes responsibility. It is required of all participants to adhere to The FCWT Code of Conduct while participating in any FCWT event:

1. Regarding Attire: when you arrive at the golf course you are expected not only to act like a golfer, but to look like one as well.
 - Your appearance during the practice round and competition should be in keeping with the following: tank tops, tee-shirts, short shorts, denim shorts, and jeans are not acceptable;
 - During play, collared shirts or blade polos must be worn. Girls may wear sleeveless golf shirts.
 - If a hat, cap or visor is worn, it shall be displayed in the proper manner and should be removed while indoors when in the host facility.
2. Regarding alcohol, tobacco, and drugs: The use of any of these substances on or off the golf course will be considered a violation of the FCWT Code of Conduct leading to disqualification of/or suspension from the FCWT golf tournament or tournaments at the FCWT's absolute discretion.
3. Regarding etiquette/course behavior: Any serious misconduct by a player may result in disqualification.

A serious misconduct may include but is not limited to the following:

- abusive or inappropriate language,
- disrespect shown to course officials, volunteers, or golf professionals, throwing of clubs,
- notification of an FCWT official is required prior to leaving the golf course during a competitive round when withdrawing for any reason including medical,
- mistreatment of the golf course in any way will be considered a violation of the FCWT Code of Conduct.

The Committee may apply the following penalty structure at their discretion:

- First breach- warning
- Second breach- 1 stroke penalty
- Third breach- general penalty

- Fourth breach or any serious misconduct- DQ
4. Regarding off-course behavior: Violation may bring a letter of warning to parents and player, a suspension from the tournament where the violation occurred, and/or suspension from future events and/or suspension as an FCWT player altogether.
- any use of abusive language,
 - the use of/or association with drugs, alcohol, smoking, or chewing tobacco products,
 - vandalism of any kind at the host hotel/facility,
 - disrespectful treatment of a host facility or property,
 - or any other conduct not becoming of a FCWT player will be considered a violation of the FCWT Code of Conduct.
5. Regarding International players: whether English is your first language or NOT, you are requested to speak English during your entire round of play. This includes, but is not limited to, questions during play regarding rulings, conversations in the scoring area, etc. If a player needs assistance with the language, he/she may request that his/her translator be present when speaking with a rules official.

A flagrant violation at the tournament and/or site may result in immediate disqualification or suspension without benefit of review. The FCWT may assess disqualification and/or suspension based on violations of one or more of the above depending on the seriousness of the violation.

If disqualification and/or suspension is necessary, the player, his/her parents, and the FCWT tournament staff will be advised to submit a written account of the circumstances and violation(s) in question to the FCWT Executive Committee within 24 hours of the notice of disqualification and/or suspension. After review, the possible disqualification and/or length of the suspension will be decided.

Spectator CODE OF CONDUCT

The FCWT appreciates the support provided by parents, grandparents, and other spectators who attend our events. In order to run our tournaments in the most effective manner and provide enjoyment for all involved, we need all non-players to abide by the following guidelines throughout the tournament experience:

- Please remain on the cart paths, in the rough, and at least 50 yards away from those playing throughout the course of the event. Please do not walk in the fairways.
- Please do not give advice to a player during his or her round.
- Spectators can help look for lost balls, be a spotter and come up to the green to watch when the players are putting.

- Spectators need to be aware of other players on the course. Please do not lag behind which prevents the group behind from playing their shots.
- Please allow the Rules Officials to make the ruling. If the Rules Official requires your input, they will approach you.
- Please turn off cell phones while on the course.
- Please respect the host facility's policy regarding cell phones indoors, dress code, etc.

Proof of Age

For the 2019-2020 season, ALL participants of the FCWT Jr. Golf Tour will be required to provide proof-of-age documentation. This documentation must be submitted and received by the FCWT within 7 days of registration. Participants from previous seasons with valid proof of age on file only need to submit a signed 2019-2020 Code of Conduct.

A certified or notarized photocopy of ONE of the following documents (state law permitting) will be acceptable; Birth Certificate, Passport or Valid driver's license. If prohibited by state law, a parent or legal guardian (21 years of age or older) can attest to the document by noting, "I attest this is a true and accurate document. PRINT: Name & Relationship, Date, and Sign."

The FCWT reserves the right to accept or reject any proof-of-age documentation not listed above.

Please make a copy of your signed Player Code of Conduct for your personal file. All proof-of-age documentation will be kept on file with the FCWT. A document can be returned only if a self-addressed stamped envelope is provided by the player.

Signed copies may be digitized and emailed as attachments to info@fcwtgolf.com. Hard copies may be mailed to: Future Collegians World Tour (FCWT), 2655 Ulmerton Road #337, Clearwater, FL 33762
