RESPONSIBILITY

1. All Professionals are responsible for knowing the Rules of Golf. It is advisable for them to carry a current Rule Book in their bag.
2. All Professionals are held responsible for knowing their starting times in South Florida Section sponsored, co-sponsored or sanctioned events. Groupings and starting times are generated by random draw. They will be made available by calling the host club or Section office during regular business hours, and they will be emailed to participants at least one day prior to the event (using the email provided during registration). In addition, tee times will be posted online at www.sfpaggolf.com/schedule/ and can also be found by using the SFPGA Tournament App.
3. Entries will close between 72 and 48 hours prior to the event unless otherwise stated on the official entry form, tournament information page or when a stipulated field is filled. Weekend deadlines revert back to the preceding Friday at 4:30 PM. Players may enter a tournament after a deadline and prior to the event date for an additional purse-enhancing fee of $75.00, provided that space is available and without existing individual or field tee time alteration. Players already entered into an event may not enter a special event (skins game etc.) on the date of the event. Additionally, any player who is disqualified from an event will not be eligible to participate in any other event contest. (Ex. Skins game, Bonus Pool, etc)
4. No Professional entries will be accepted unless accompanied by payment in the full amount. Should an event sell out more than 14 days in advance of the deadline, PGA members would be put into the field in place of apprentices up until that 14 day window.
5. Refund Policy: All refunds will be subject to a $10 administrative fee. No refunds will be issued after the deadline and if pairings have been made, usually within 24-hours after the deadline date, unless a previously paid alternate can fill the spot. NOTE: This only applies to the entry fee of the tournament. Players will be refunded for the bonus pool and the skins game if they entered that portion of the competition. To receive a full refund (minus administrative fee), withdrawals must be submitted in written form and sent to the Section office via email to (bgraf@pgahq.com) or by regular mail. The only exception to this is if the withdrawing participant has a death in the family in which case they will receive a refund.
6. Withdraw, No Card, Did Not Show, Disqualified: A player will be considered to have withdrawn from an event any time he/she takes themselves out of the event before or between a stipulated round(s). Any player failing to notify a tournament official of withdrawing from an event prior to the start of the stipulated round will be considered a no show or DNS which will result in a $50 fine. A player will be considered to have no carded or NC any time he/she starts a stipulated round and does not complete the round or returns a card to the scoring table which is designated NC. Failure to notify a tournament official of a NC prior to the conclusion of the stipulated round will result in a $50 fine. Once a player has started a stipulated round, failure to complete that stipulated round without due cause (illness, injury or emergency) will result in a $50 fine. A fine of $100 will be issued for a second offense and any subsequent offense of the above within current tournament activity season. EXCEPTION: Player will be allowed to withdraw during a weather delay without cause while not being subject to fines, but not after play has resumed. A player will be disqualified anytime he breaches a rule of golf where the penalty is disqualification.
