Ben Hogan Junior Cup Matches

August 5-6, 2024 – Shady Oaks Country Club

Event Overview

The Ben Hogan Junior Cup Matches is one of the most competitive Ryder Cup format events in Texas for junior golfers. The event is made up of two teams, one from the Southern Texas PGA Section and one from the Northern Texas PGA Section. Each team consists of twelve junior golfers (six boys and six girls) who are 13 to 18 years of age.

Qualification Guidelines

There are various championships for players to earn a spot on the Southern Texas PGA Ben Hogan Junior Cup Matches team. Below are the Srixon Billiard Factory Prestige Tour events in which the champion in the listed divisions will earn a spot to represent Team STPGA.

NOTE 1: In the event that the winner of any division at the qualifying sites listed above has already met the qualifying guidelines for the Ben Hogan Junior Cup team, the next best finishing player who has not already qualified, will be invited. After the third player is invited to play, the spot will be chosen by the Southern Texas PGA. All ties for a spot on the Ben Hogan Junior Cup team will be determined by a hole-by-hole sudden-death playoff immediately following play.

NOTE 2: If, within 30 days of the Official Practice Round of the Ben Hogan Cup Matches, a player who has previously qualified is unable to compete for any reason, the Southern Texas PGA will select a replacement.

NOTE 3: All invited players for the Ben Hogan Cup team must be a member of the STPGA and reside in the confines of the Southern Texas Section.
